

FAQs

What is the purpose of a notary?

a notary service verifies identifications, confirms intent of the document and serve as a witness.

What kinds of documents can I notarize?

Commonly documents like but not limited to deeds, mortgages, and closing paperwork. Estate planning paperwork like living wills, trusts and power of attorney, affidavits court statements.

What if you can't verify my identity?

If your identity can't be verified with the legal documents provided additional verification documents may be requested and we will reschedule a meeting.

What happens if I need to reschedule the appointment?

Please reach out to me at least 12 hours prior to reschedule an appointment.

What happens in an unexpected situation?

Life happens. Communication is key. Depending on the situation flexibility may be offered.